ABOUT US

Promoprint Ventures LTD specialises in the manufacture and printing of promotional items such as polos, t shirts, uniforms, corporate apparel, baseball caps, badges, varied bags etc which are customized to suit company's needs. A variety of promotional items and corporate gifts are also available, and we can source for all items suited to a particular industry. Logos and other personalization are achieved using a variety of screen printing, full color transfers, embroidery and engraving on a wide variety of merchandise, some produced locally and others imported.

We approach our jobs with professional efficiency, and will not promise what we can not deliver. Each job is treated with the same attention to detail, whether it is five or fifty thousand items. As we have our own factory and machines, there is no middleman and all savings goes to the client. Quality is key for us and our clients.
